The TRALALA has been entirely renovated in 2008 to offer a modern and musical atmosphere with its historical charm to its hosts. Montreux is a place of music with its Jazz Festival, the Septembre Musical and Love-Boats. Many music stars lived and are still living in Montreux such as Igor Stravinsky, Freddie Mercury and Piotr-Ilyich Tchaikovski, Shania Twain, Barbara Hendricks or Luc Plamondon. The TRALALA celebrates and honours this heritage. Each room is unique and dedicated to an artist that made the reputation of Montreux. You will be sleeping by David Bowie, Aretha Franklin, Miles Davis, ZZ Top, Santana or even Igor Stravinsky's side. TRALALA also offers very attractive prices to ensure the pleasure of your stay until the end of it, the best price/pleasure ratio on the Swiss Riviera.
