Built in 1842 on the foundations of a Swiss Castle ? the vaults of which can still be seen in the spa ? this historic and award-winning hotel is set against the timeless backdrop of Lake Geneva and the Alps. It offers 71 individually decorated rooms, of which 16 suites and 9 junior suites. Its Puressens Destination Spa offers several health programs and tailored treatments from world-renowned skin specialist Joëlle Ciocco (exclusivity for Switzerland). It features the city's largest indoor pool (24m long) with underwater music. Les Trois Couronnes restaurant has 1 star in Swiss Guide Michelin 2013, adding to 14 points Gault Millau. Executive Chef Lionel Rodriguez offers tasteful Mediterranean cuisine with a focus on Southern French and regional products cooked in a light or gourmet way.
